Tony Palmieri

In this, the Spring issue you will find articles on chapter news that are well worth your time to read whether you are a graduate or undergraduate. I especially enjoy reading of my chapter of initiation and am disappointed when they do not send news. All chapter news articles are published with editing when necessary due to space. In my seven years as editor I have been continually impressed with the high quality of the service, social and academic programs of our chapters. This reflects extremely well on our fraternity and ourselves as individuals. I have also been encouraged by the usual high quality of writing by the chapter historians and others who have submitted materials on behalf of their chapters. Keep up the good work. Also in this issue you will find registration information and up-to-date program information on the Orlando GCC. It is an experience of sharing, caring and brotherhood that you will not want to miss. See you there!

From the Grand Regent

Province Realignment

At the 42nd Grand Council Convention, I established a Task Force to review the present alignment of our chapters in Provinces and to make a recommendation to the Executive Committee on their findings. At the Executive Committee meeting held in Houston in July, we received a report from the Task Force and now have a suggested format for realignment of Provinces. This suggested change will be sent to all graduate and collegiate chapters for discussion after which an open hearing is scheduled during the 43rd Grand Council Convention in Orlando. Why realignment? Why not? Many times we hear the expression, "If it is not broke, don't fix it." Sometimes this leads to stagnation, a lack of imagination, and creeping provincialism.

As Grand Regent of the fraternity it is my duty to strengthen the fraternity, to make its operations more fluid, and to seek what is best for the whole and not for a few. During my tenure as Grand Regent I have had the opportunity to visit Chapters throughout the United States. I have observed our areas of strengths and weaknesses and have noted imbalances in Province size and strength. One must step beyond what may be politically feasible and begin to look at what is best for Kappa Psi.

Change is always difficult. We may see certain chapters moved to another province but it should not mean the loss of friendships. Brotherhood transcends province lines. We are all members of the same fraternity today and will be tomorrow. What we decide must be done in good faith and in the spirit of brotherhood.

My final request of each of you is that you review and discuss the realignment. Consider both the positive and negative effects of realignment and have your chapter delegate to the Grand Council prepare to offer your chapters views. I am certain the final decision by the Executive Committee will be one done after careful and thoughtful consideration. You can rest assured your views are important and will be heard and analyzed.

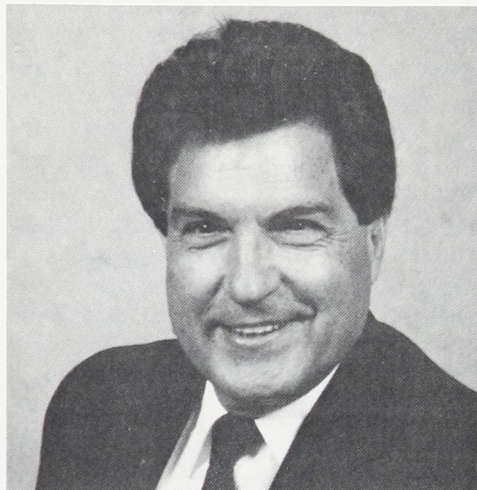

As always, you have my best wishes for a successful academic year.

Dr. Robert A. Magarian, (Beta Rho) College of Pharmacy, University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, Division of Medicinal Chemistry, has been awarded a three-year grant from The National Cancer Institute (NIH) to prepare and test a new class of antiestrogens to be used in the treatment of breast cancer. Brother Magarian has been working in the antiestrogen area for over 15 years. He and his co-investigator, Dr. J. Tom Pentto (Gamma Omicron), have an antiestrogen which appears promising, and they have hopes of taking this compound into Phase I testing in late Spring.

How to work with people you don't like

by Glenn T. Boyles

“The customer is always right!” is an easily remembered phrase that you should recall whenever you need to remind yourself of the importance of getting along with other people. Its message can help those people in the business world who actually work with customers, as well as those people who work in other areas. All of us have to work with other people, and therefore we should do all we can to improve our relationships with them.

Your ability to sustain productive relationships with other people, is a critical factor in determining how quickly you reach the goals you have established for yourself. Mastering your ability to develop and sustain productive relationships with people you may not respect or like, is a necessity, since you will find yourself in situations where your effectiveness depends on their co-operation. If you allow a personal dislike for someone to develop into a personality clash, or power struggle, you will be placing yourself in a position where you may end up becoming your own worst enemy. People working in close proximity with either one of you, will quickly sense your hostility to each other, and eventually everyone will become aware of it. Once your mutual dislike for each other is general knowledge; not only will your decisions, opinions and actions be more closely scrutinized, but also, you will have the distinction of having created one additional problem that your superiors must remain aware of.

If you are unfortunate enough to already be caught up in a scenario such as this, do all you can to extricate yourself immediately. Consider mentioning (at a time when you are sure to be overheard by your superiors, but not overheard by the other person involved) that you have come to the realization that you may not have been doing all you could have to contribute to the smooth, efficient handling of your responsibilities, therefore you have re-prioritized your objectives. Continue on, casually explaining that your primary objective is to establish and maintain the most efficient, productive relationship possible, with everyone you come in contact with. Steps such as these, will improve your working relationship with the other person; should get you more visibility; will demonstrate your commitment to your work, by publicly acknowledging your decline in productivity; and, in the long run, will end up being more valuable to your future promotability, than continuing on with your present self-defeating behavior.

Your success in achieving the objectives that you have established for yourself, or that your employer has established for you, is directly related to how well you are able to get along with the people you come in contact with. Improving relationships often requires that you become aware of when, as well as how to separate your ego and personal emotions from your working relationships with other people. The following suggestions will direct you in establishing and maintaining mutually beneficial, long lasting relationships with other people:

- Be sure that everyone that you come in contact with knows that you value the relationship you have with them;
- Encourage people you are close with professionally, as well as personally, to exchange their thoughts, beliefs and attitudes with you;
- Identify, and remain aware of basic differences between you. When an opportunity arises, discuss these differences—calmly and rationally explain how you feel, and why you feel the way you do. Ask the other person to tell you why they feel as they do. The best time to initiate this discussion is when a situation develops, related to one of your areas of differences but involving someone other than the two of you. By talking about someone else's problem, you are more likely to limit your discussion to the actual circumstances, without allowing your emotions to interfere. Once you have established this mutual understanding you will find it easier to work around your areas of disagreement.

As you work at developing your skills in this area, focus your efforts on creating an environment where you can concentrate on only the thoughts and activities that will help you to achieve your objectives. When you do encounter people who are difficult for you to work with, remember to recall the phrase, “The customer is always right!”. It will remind you of the importance of getting along with other people, and the role they play in your achieving the goals you have established!

The Student's Side

Dave Mason, Collegiate Member-at-large

I hope everyone is recovering well from a safe and happy holiday season.

I first want to thank Province VIII for showing Grand Historian-Ritualist Johnny Porter and myself a great time at conclave in November. The brothers of Province VIII and host chapter Delta Zeta made us feel at home. The province meets once per semester, and their spirit is to be admired. There is a lot we all can learn from this group. (Their taste for raw onions caught me by surprise, and "Mony, Mony" will never be the same.) Twice-a-year meetings should definitely be considered by any province that feels it may be feasible.

Now comes the time to regroup and get down to some real business. Most of last fall's pledges are members now, so with numbers large we can accomplish more. Projects, fundraisers, community services, and parties make for a fraternity that stands proud. Make this spring a banner season for Kappa Psi.

Continue budgeting for Orlando in August, fundraising these last few months will be crucial.

A truly thriving chapter needs input from their graduate members. Too many chapters fail to keep in contact with their graduates. Remember—"Once Kappa Psi, Always Kappa Psi." Many graduates have told me that they'd love to get involved with the chapter, but no one ever lets them know what's going on. Make this the year to rediscover old relationships.

As you pass through this semester, remember that academics come first. A's are great, but don't get discouraged if the grades don't always fall your way, keep in mind the pharmaceutical calculation equation that "C = RPh."

Gamma Zeta Samford

We started off by welcoming new pharmacy students to Samford. And what better way to get acquainted than with an old fashioned cook out.

After a few days to settle into the new semester, we sponsored a "Milk A Mexican Bull" taco rush party. Later that week we held our annual back-to-school "Tacky Tourist" party.

We had 33 people express an interest in Kappa Psi. Our pledge trainer, David Holland, took these people on a weekend retreat at a local state park. This was followed by a scavenger hunt, and ended with the pledges meeting their big brothers at a popular student hangout.

The pledges embarked on an ambitious service project to raise money for an electric wheelchair for a quadraplegic. They were quite successful in their efforts. Of the needed $2000, these people held a wheelchair push and were able to raise over $1200. We are very proud of these people!

For Halloween, we held a "HELL-O-WEEN" party. This involved big brothers giving their little brothers "Legacy Mugs." These will be passed down from little brother to little brother. After this, everyone had a good time at the various halloween parties that were being thrown that night.

November 7th saw the initiation of 30 pledges. We were also honored with the presence of two new faculty brothers: Dr. Jack Burke, and Dr. Roger Lander. The brothers held a wine and cheese party for the new members afterwards.

We held elections of new officers on November 23rd. The new officers for 1987 are:

Regent ..... Jamie Lee
Vice-Regent ..... Kim Wilkerson
Recording Sec. .... Margaret Johnson
Corresponding Sec. .... Danny France
Treasurer ..... Cecil Vincent
Historian ..... Britt Roberts
Chaplain ..... Randy Davis
Sgt. at Arms ..... Charlie Hudson
Pledge Trainer..... David Holland

On December 12th, the pharmacy school held its annual Christmas program which is put on by students and faculty. The highlight of the program is the presentation, to the Fraternal Order of Police, toys collected by the various organizations for the Toys for Tots campaign.

In closing, it has been my pleasure serving in this position for the 1986 school year. To Jeff Bonham and Tommy Johnson from the Gamma Xi chapter, we look forward to seeing you again soon. I look forward to meeting many new people at our Province IV meeting in February along with the National meeting in August at Orlando.

Gamma Iota SUNY-Buffalo

Last fall was a very eventful semester for all of us here in Buffalo. The good times began for us in July when we attended a Barbecue Weekend hosted by Beta Delta of Albany. It was an appropriate beginning for what is turning out to be one of our most successful years yet.

We are proud to announce the initiation of 33 new brothers: Sally Blackledge, Lisa Boesch, Tim Boland, Tracy Brigman, Tony Chiffy, Linda Colegrove, Patricia Devincentis, Andrea Emsweller, Bill Freeman, Pete Gargano, Leanne Haley, Kristen Henthorn, Heidi Holland, Scott Kassay, Margaret King, Scott Kruse, Tammy Lavalley, Antoinette Lipomi, Victor Lucci, Margery Magnanti, Michael Palone, Judy Polek, Bryan Rupert, James Rutowski, Ali Safaie, Bernadette Scarpace, Evelyn Schlenklopper, Elaine Soldi, Ken Warren, David Williams, Chris Wishart, Marcia Woodworth, and Paul Zagami. They proved to be an excellent pledge class. Our current membership now stands at 65.

Highlights of this past semester centered mostly around pledging. The pledges hosted a Hawaiian Luau for the brothers and we reciprocated with a party.

Other events of the fall semester included a blood drive, drug card sale, and participation in the Centennial Celebration of the S.U.N.Y. at Buffalo School of Pharmacy.

Several events are already being planned for spring. In the end of January we are going to pay a visit to Beta Delta to participate in their hellnight. Our 3rd Semi-annual Alumni Night is scheduled for early February, and a ski trip is being planned. Also on the agenda are plans to attend the Province V Assembly and possibly the Grand Council Convention this summer. Hopefully we'll see you all there!

—Ann M. Schuler

Brothers Kathleen Barry, Bill Reiss (regent), and Anne-Marie Fallon hosted the Kappa Psi booth at the Centennial Open House this past September. The Open House was one of several events scheduled in celebration of the S.U.N.Y. at Buffalo School of Pharmacy's 100th Anniversary."

Gamma Sigma Florida

The 1987 Spring semester has arrived bringing with it many of our brothers that were not here last semester due to differences that exist between the B.S. and Pharm D. curricula. Although the active number of brothers in Gainesville last semester was relatively small, we managed to successfully organize all of the traditional functions including our Homecoming BBQ, Drug Awareness Day (our annual professional project) and some fundraising projects. We also saw the initiation of four new brothers; Albert Tapia, Steve Getz, Thomas Dahlgreen, and Phil Barton. We're very proud of these men as they will add quality to our chapter as well as future honors.

In addition to expanding our brotherhood, our little sister program grew substantially when we initiated 15 little sisters. The Halloween party, which they organized, provided much entertainment, as many interesting costumes were displayed that evening by both students and faculty. Because of their dedication and hard work, the little sisters have become a great asset to the fraternity.

This semester will be very hectic as many activities await our participation such as our Annual Golf Tournament and Barbecue, the "Battle of the Blood Bucket" which is a blood drive competition between the colleges of our medical center, and participation in intramural sports.

Finally, special recognition must go to two members of our fraternity; Dr. Thomas Baumgartner, our Grand Council Deputy, and Brother Gary Cacciatore. Dr. Baumgartner spends much of his time involved with the fraternity and truly serves as a model brother. Brother Gary Cacciatore's list of awards and accomplishments is numerous, but he does not let other commitments get in the way of fraternal matters. He is another brother whose footsteps we should follow.

Upsilon Kentucky

In November Upsilon held a blood sugar screening clinic. We screened about eighty people which kept the members and pledges busy. We felt this event was successful and helped promote the College of Pharmacy in our community. Also last November we kept the pledges busy with some time tested Upsilon pledge rituals. We sent them out on a scavenger hunt for hard to find items about town, there was a winning team, but the point was to get the pledges to work together and at the same time have a little fun. In January the pledges were responsible for planning an all college Welcome Back Party. This was a chance for some leadership qualities to surface in some of the pledges since elections will be coming up in early March for next year's officers. Later in January the pledges took a pledge quiz which tested them on the rich history of Kappa Psi. Culminating these pledge activities was the 78th Annual Initiation Banquet on Feb.

6th. Twenty-four pledges were activated as members of Kappa Psi, one of Upsilon's largest membership classes ever. Also at the Banquet, Professor Richard Doughty, who is Grand Historian Emeritus, was honored as he has retired after 36 years of dedicated service to the UK College of Pharmacy, please join us in wishing him the best of luck in his leisure years. Currently, Upsilon is in full gear planning for the Annual Province V Meeting to be held in Lexington this year, the weekend of April 10-12. We are looking forward to renewing the many friendships and the Brotherhood of the Fraternity that we found at Gamma Delta last year.

—Steve King

Deadline for the next issue is:
April 15, 1987.

Ten Kappa Psi Brothers participated in the 1986 NPC Student Intern Seminar. Among those attending were: Lisa Behringer, Tony Bloise, Janis Brinkman, David Burgess, Thomas Fitzpatrick, Jeanette Hartley, Brian Holstine, Brock Nyberg, Julie Scholbrock, and Al Slutz.

Since the last issue of the Mask many exciting events have taken place at Beta Sigma chapter. We attended our province meeting with our force of fired up Kappa Psi brothers at Iowa City, Iowa. Brother Harvey Hanel was elected province Vice

Epsilon Minnesota

Epsilon Chapter enjoyed a banner year in 1986 as membership grew dramatically and special projects flourished. Currently, our chapter consists of 38 active members. Congratulations go to our newest members who entered the Agora Spring and Fall quarters, 1986. They are: Kim Bendickson, Renee Buss, LuAnn Helleland, Linda Jablonicky, Trish Petit, Carolyn Salmon, Rick Zabinski, Beth Alexander, Jay Dahlstrom, Linda Diego, Tracy Jackson, Kjel Johnson, Lisa Julian, Cindy Noet and Tom Reutzel.

The elected officers for 1986-87 are:

Regent .....	Karen Jacobson
Vice-Regent .....	Corinne Schroeder
Secretary .....	Kathryn Kaldunski
Social Chair/Chaplain .....	Coleen Grimm
Historian .....	Richard Leone
TAMS .....	Prati Agarwal
Grand Council Deputy ..	S. Bruce Benson

Recently, Epsilon Chapter voted to include TAMS as an elected office. TAMS is the acronym for Teen Age Medical Service which is a medical clinic specifically geared toward teenagers. Epsilon Chapter, under the supervision of Graduate Brother Greg Holmes, operates and staffs a small pharmacy located in the clinic. It is a worthwhile community project and involves many active members of our chapter.

Another project undertaken by Epsilon Chapter is publishing the Pharmacopa, the yearbook of the College of Pharmacy. This fine publication is sent to pharmacies all over the state of Minnesota. We are currently in the process of preparing the 1987 edition. Fall quarter we presented talks on Sexually Transmitted Diseases to many area high schools. This is an ongoing project which has received favor from both teachers and students. More talks are planned for the rest of the year. Epsilon Chapter also publishes a directory for the College of Pharmacy which was distributed at the end of Fall Quarter.

Our fundraising activities have been very successful the past few years. Most recently we sold "U of M College of Pharmacy" sweatshirts and demand was overwhelming. Despite dark clouds, cold weather and rain, our annual Homecoming Hot Tub Party enjoyed a good turnout.

On the social side, Epsilon Chapter has also been very active. Plans for Winter quarter include a dinner meeting and intramural sports participation. Spring quarter marks our annual trip to Bay Lake in northern Minnesota where a weekend of cookouts, golfing swimming and general partying is to be expected.

Interchapter ties grew as several Brothers of Epsilon drove to Madison, Wisconsin to join the Brothers of Beta Psi in their Fall quarter initiation weekend. The Brothers brought back many new ideas.

Epsilon Chapter hopes to continue in the Kappa Psi tradition of industry, sobriety and fellowship in the years to come.

—Rich Leone

Theta Medical College of Virginia

Fall semester proved to be both productive and exciting for our chapter, and we are now looking forward to a great spring semester. Already, we have begun to make plans for our Spring Formal and Spring Rush.

On the professional scene, we will be conducting hypertension screenings and blood glucose screenings with other pharmaceutical fraternities at local pharmacies. Also, we will be visiting the Virginia Treatment Center For Children. During these visits, we will interest with the children through volleyball and other social events.

Gamma Delta Ohio Northern

The Gamma Delta chapter in Ada has been very busy this year. Our major concern Fall quarter was Rush. Many activities such as our Smoker, Halloween Party and other parties with Sororities highlighted our program. Through these activities, we gained 7 pledges. They are: Matthew Feltman, Wayne Grant, Darren Lore, Anthony Nappo, Kurt Nestel, Phil Ruark, and Jeffery Weis.

Our Homecoming, held on October 18th, was a success. It was great to see all our alumni come back and enjoy themselves.

Our Professional scene has also been a huge success. Along with hosting Blood Mobile, we have set the date for our annual Drug Trip to be March 2-6. This year we are touring Parke-Davis in Michigan and Eli Lilly in Indianapolis. It's a great time for all.

The athletes of Gamma Delta are striving for excellence. As of now, we have participated in flashball, volleyball, bowling, horseshoes and a variety of other games of competitive skill.

The highlight of this year has been the marriages of several brothers. They are: Gilbert Art, Scott Mincher and Brent Phillips. We feel that the rest of this year will be just as successful through continuous Professional and Social activities.

Lastly, Pi chapter has three goals for 1987. We will stress our role as a professional fraternity and leaders in pharmacy. Kappa Psi's role in pharmacy can be demonstrated by our professional projects. Pi chapter's Drug Fair is scheduled for mid-October. Plans for a drug educational program for a school and nursing home are in the makings. We are also planning a new pledge program that will, among other things, allow for more activity between prospective pledges and the brothers.

Gamma Pi St. Louis

Gamma Pi ended 1986 very successfully! We helped brothers Todd and Leann celebrate their wedding in November—congratulations Mr. & Mrs. Paarlberg! We also had a terrific Christmas party just before finals. Things went off with a few hitches but friends and brothers didn't let that get in the way of having a good time. The Christmas party was also the last party at the KT house. We sold the house in November. The house had been a haven for KT brothers of StLCOP for 12 years. We have a few prospects for a new KT house, one of which is an old bar and cafe, but we will wait until after pledging before making any decisions.

Speaking of pledging . . . We had a smoker on Jan. 19th. Brother Laura Oster reserved a two-story clubhouse complete with dance floor, bar, and lounge. Brother Tim Jessen is pledge master and will have a challenge finding things to keep the pledges busy since we will have no house projects.

Brother Dan Draege was in charge of the Red Cross/KT blood drive on Jan. 22nd. It was a huge success as always! Now Dan is going to organize the VP Fair in July.

Congratulations to Tim Jessen and Garth Xander who completed two research studies on phenylpropanolamine and cholera toxin respectively. They conducted their research for many long hours under the guidance of Dr. Teri Martinez. They traveled to Molokai, Hawaii and made their presentations at the Western Pharmacological Society's annual meeting at the Sheraton Hotel.

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Tim Rice who were married on Feb. 14th.

Province VIII Conclave

The Brothers of Province VIII have done it again! They had one more terrific Conclave. Meeting in Iowa City for this semester's Conclave proved to be a good time for all in attendance. We gladly meet twice a year to discuss Province business, but we also meet to see our Province Brothers.

This semester we met at the University of Iowa, in Iowa City on November 7-8, 1986. Friday night's theme party was "School Colors." These Friday night parties help acquaint and reacquaint the Brothers, and also allow for some fun before the business meeting.

Saturday morning, after a continental breakfast, the meeting came to order with a welcome from University of Iowa's Dean Robert Wiley, and also from special guests Grand Ritualist Johnny Porter, and Collegiate member-at-large Dave Mason, the meeting came to order. After Province officer and chapter reports, and after Province business was completed, officers were elected. The new Vice Satrap is Dave Bradstreet, and the new Secretary-Treasurer is Harvey Hanel. Congratulations! After business, we had a special workshop on Nuclear Pharmacy presented to us by Jim Ponto R.P. After the workshop, Gamma Kappa announced that they will host the next Conclave meeting in March of 1987.

The afternoon was free to do whatever the Brothers wanted. Many spent the afternoon in downtown Iowa City, or at the hotel resting up for the night's party.

Before the banquet there was a social hour. Banquet speaker was Robert Sample who spoke to us about how to succeed in pharmacy.

After the banquet, everyone got ready for the night's party, a T.V. Rerun Party where everyone came dressed as their favorite T.V. Rerun character. There were quite a few surprises for costumes, and it was fun to see everyone enjoy themselves.

A special thanks to Delta Zeta who worked to make this Conclave a success. Also a special thanks to our departing officers, Vice Satrap Paul Soderberg, and to Secretary-Treasurer Terry Finck. They did a great job. Hope to see everyone in Brookings, SD in March!

Gamma Omicron Oklahoma

Gamma Omicron plans to carry out our traditional Spring activities along with fund-raisers and alumni get-togethers.

The highlight of the semester will be our Province VII Assembly to be hosted by Delta Beta Chapter of Southwestern Oklahoma State University. The meeting will be held in Oklahoma City in early Spring. Our Chapter plans to help coordinate this event. Other scheduled activities within our school include a dance with a Lip Sync Contest, a "Drug Fair" and Pharmacy Day.

Congratulations are in order for Rick Youngberg. Rick recently was awarded a $1250 scholarship from the National Association of Chain Drug Stores . . .

Special thanks to our California alumni Kevin and Diane Mah. Their contribution to our Chapter has been put to good use. We gratefully accept, welcome and encourage input in the form of contributions as well as suggestions for bettering our Chapter. We look forward to continuing our growth and leadership.
